

Exit Interviews

Do you know why people are leaving?

- Online Exit Interview Questionnaire
- Verbal and Written Feedback on retention and leaving factors
- Group Reports to assess trends

Collecting the right data as people leave the business is a powerful tool in driving organisational change and effectiveness.

Only when we understand our retention factors can we hire the right people and manage staff to reduce our unwanted turnover.

Human Chemistry delivers these insights to you in a fast and easy to use format.
